WHO IS JUDGE HURST? It is well known to all that a doughty warvaliant commander of the notorious robbing, burning and pillaging 6th Tennessee cavalry, now wears, as a mark of Brownlow's favor, the judicial ermine of the 8th district, once presided over by such good and true Nick Foster and Henry Fergusen, col'd, men as Haskill, Turley, Reed, Totten and would be a source of amusement to the en-Thomas Cunningham, late of Memphis, tire legal fraternity, if not often accompasults to the innocent victims of his brutal ignorance, prejudices, and hellish instincts. tice. WHAT OCCURRED AT PURDY, AND HOW. Mr. Etheridge, in a most powerful and scathing speech on Saturday, as above alluded to, afforded Hurst, and all like him, ample apprehension that the sun of Brown lowism, usurpation, outrage and wrong, was rapidly hastening to set in the black darkness of eternal oblivion. Judge Hurst says the Franchise Law is Unconstitutional.

We take the following article from the Memphis Daily Avalanche of the 25th:

We have just enjoyed a call from Hon. John W. Lelftwich, our gallant standard bearer for Congress, who returns to the city buoyant with hope from a thorough canvass of this Congressional district. He was with phis Avalanche, of the 22d inst. And first, Mr. Etheridge at Purdy, Bolivar, Jackson and Humboldt, and feels confident that at least one hundred votes were gained to Conservatism at Purdy, and that an equal number would have been gained at each of the other points had there been any material from which to make the gain; but in the other counties there is literally no "Radical party." Having read our remarks relative to the conduct of Judge Hurst, at Purdy, Dr. Lestwich thinks we ought to do Hurst the justice to add that before the conclusion of the speech he apoligised for what opinion that the last Franchise Law was
